

Full circle

Things don't really go to plan, and that's fine.

- Came to Germany on a motorbike with a rucksack
- Planned: 2 years → back to the UK
- 2 years became 20+
- House, family, career, life
- Returning with a rucksack would now be difficult

What I learned

You don't need a perfect plan

- Most opportunities started before your ready
- Confidence comes after action
- Say yes to opportunities
- Figure things out as you go - things make sense later
- Things rarely go to plan — and that's ok
- Trying things gets you far
